Ticker	Investment Objectives
HCON	HCON seeks to provide a combination of income and moderate long-term capital growth, primarily by investing in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of fixed income and equity securities.
HBAL	HBAL seeks to provide a combination of long-term capital growth and a moderate level of income, primarily by investing in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of equity and fixed income securities.
HGRW	HGRW seeks to provide a combination of long-term capital growth and a modest level of income, primarily by investing in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of equity and fixed income securities.
HEQT	HEQT seeks to provide long-term capital growth, primarily by investing in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of equity securities.
HEQL	HEQL seeks to provide enhanced long-term capital growth, primarily by investing, directly or indirectly, in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of equity securities. HEQL will also employ leverage (not to exceed the limits on use of leverage described under “Investment Strategies” on the fund’s prospectus) through cash borrowing and will generally endeavour to maintain a leverage ratio of approximately 125%.
GRCC	GRCC seeks to provide a combination of a high level of income and moderate long-term capital growth, primarily by investing in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of equity and fixed income securities. To mitigate downside risk and generate premiums, GRCC will be exposed to a dynamic option writing program.
EQCC	EQCC seeks to provide a combination of a high level of income and long-term capital growth, primarily by investing in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of equity securities. To generate premiums, EQCC will be exposed to a dynamic covered call options writing program.
EQCL	EQCL seeks to provide a combination of a high level of income and long-term capital growth, primarily by investing, directly or indirectly, in exchange traded funds that provide exposure to a globally diversified portfolio of equity securities. To generate premiums, EQCL will be exposed to a dynamic covered call option writing program. EQCL will also employ leverage (not to exceed the limits on use of leverage described under “Investment Strategies”) through cash borrowing and will generally endeavour to maintain a leverage ratio of approximately 125%.

DISCLAIMERS

Commissions, management fees, and expenses all may be associated with an investment in products (the “Global X Funds”) managed by Global X Investments Canada Inc. The Global X Funds are not guaranteed, their values change frequently and past performance may not be repeated. Certain Global X Funds may have exposure to leveraged investment techniques that magnify gains and losses which may result in greater volatility in value and could be subject to aggressive investment risk and price volatility risk. Such risks are described in the prospectus. The prospectus contains important detailed information about the Global X Funds. Please read the relevant prospectus before investing.

Effective August 25, 2023, the investment objectives, investment strategies, management fees, currency hedging and distribution policies of the Global X Conservative Asset Allocation ETF (formerly Horizons Conservative Asset Allocation ETF) (“HCON”), the Global X Balanced Asset Allocation ETF (formerly Horizons Balanced Asset Allocation ETF) (“HBAL”), and the Global X All-Equity Asset Allocation ETF (“HEQT”) (formerly Horizons All-Equity Asset Allocation ETF) were changed following receipt of the required unitholder and regulatory approvals. For more information, please refer to the disclosure documents of the ETFs at www.GlobalX.ca.

Effective June 24, 2022, the investment objectives of the Global X S&P/TSX 60 Covered Call ETF (“CNCC”) (formerly Horizons Canadian Large Cap Equity Covered Call ETF), the Global X S&P 500 Covered Call ETF (“USCC.U, USCC”) (formerly Horizons US Large Cap Equity Covered Call ETF), and the Global X NASDAQ-100 Covered Call ETF (“QQCC”) (formerly Horizons NASDAQ-100 Covered Call ETF), were changed following receipt of the required unitholder and regulatory approvals. For more information, please refer to the disclosure documents of the ETFs at www.GlobalX.ca.

Global X Total Return Index ETFs (“Global X TRI ETFs”) are generally index-tracking ETFs that use an innovative investment structure known as a Total Return Swap to deliver index returns in a low-cost and tax-efficient manner. Unlike a physical replication ETF that typically purchases the securities found in the relevant index in the same proportions as the index, most Global X TRI ETFs use a synthetic structure that never buys the securities of an index directly. Instead, the ETF receives the total return of the index by entering into a Total Return Swap agreement with one or more counterparties, typically large financial institutions, which will provide the ETF with the total return of the index in exchange for the interest earned on the cash held by the ETF. Any distributions which are paid by the index constituents are reflected automatically in the net asset value (NAV) of the ETF. As a result, the Global X TRI ETF receives the total return of the index (before fees), which is reflected in the ETF’s share price, and investors are not expected to receive any taxable distributions. Certain Global X TRI ETFs (Global X Nasdaq-100 Index Corporate Class ETF and Global X US Large Cap Index Corporate Class ETF) use physical replication instead of a total return swap.

Each of the Enhanced ETFs (HEQL and EQCL) is an alternative mutual fund within the meaning of NI 81-102, and is permitted to use strategies generally prohibited by conventional mutual funds, such as the ability to invest more than 10% of the Enhanced ETF’s net asset value in securities of a single issuer, the ability to borrow cash and to employ leverage. While these strategies will only be used in accordance with the applicable investment objectives and strategies of the Enhanced ETFs, during certain market conditions they may accelerate the risk that an investment in Units of such Enhanced ETF decreases in value.
